

```
1 // Step 1: import data table, generate log values for dependent variable
2 // gen l_Revenue = log(Revenueinbillions)
3 // gen l_Value = log(Valueinbillions)
4 // gen l_Attendance = log(Attendance)
5
6 // Step 2: generate z scores for dependent varibale
7 // egen z_Revenue = std(l_Revenue)
8 // egen z_Value = std(l_Value)
9 // egen z_Attendance = std(l_Attendance)
10
11 // Step 3: create dependent variable
12 // pca z_Revenue z_Value z_Attendance
13
14 // Step 4: generate log vlues for independent variables
15 // gen l_prox = log(Proximity)
16 // gen l_comp = log(Competition)
17 // gen l_win = log(Win)
18 // gen l_pop = log(Populationinmillions)
19 // gen l_market = log(Marketinmillions)
20
21
22 // Step 5: run regression model
23 // reg success_pc1 l_prox l_comp l_win l_pop l_market
24
25 // Step 6: import 2nd data table, generate log values
26 // gen l_rev = log(Revenue)
27 // gen l_att = log(Attendance)
28 // gen l_val = log(Valueinbillions)
29
30 // Step 7: generate log values for independent variables
31 // gen l_prox = log(Proximity)
32 // gen l_comp = log(Competition)
33 // gen l_win = log(Win)
34 // gen l_mark = log(Marketinmillions)
35 // gen l_pop = log(Populationinmillions)
36 // gen l_compet = log(Competition+1)
37
38 // Step 8: run prediction model
39 // predict success_hat
40 // gsort -success_hat
41 // list City success_hat
```